Yellow Ribbon Program Application

Northeastern University has entered into an agreement with the Department of Veterans Affairs to participate in the Yellow Ribbon Program. Northeastern will fund tuition expenses for a maximum of 459 students. Funds will be awarded on a first-come, first-served basis determined by the date of receipt of all completed application requirements. To receive benefits under the Yellow Ribbon Program:

1. You must be eligible for the Post-9/11 GI Bill at 100% Benefit rate. For benefits information, visit gibill.va.gov/benefits/post_911_gibill/yellow_ribbon_program.html.

2. You must submit an application for Post-9/11 benefits to the Department of Veteran's Affairs. Complete and submit the application form online at vabenefits.vba.va.gov. You will receive a Certificate of Eligibility explaining the VA's decision regarding your eligibility for the program in the mail.

3. You must submit a current copy of your Certificate of Eligibility to Northeastern along with this application as the VA requires us to verify your enrollment.

Instructions: Complete all information requested on this form and mail, fax, hand-deliver, or scan and email to the address above. Forms submitted without proper documentation will not be processed.
